For Immediate Release:

Art Auction to Benefit the Foundation for International Medical Relief of Children

Philadelphia, PA, March 1, 2007 - The Foundation for International Medical Relief of Children (FIMRC) awareness and fundraising event will be held at the Merion Tribute House on Thursday, April 26th at 7:00pm. The event will begin with an hour to preview the art and learn about the organization, followed by a live art auction. The preview hour will include refreshments, wine, cheese, and Hors d'oeuvres.

In our effort to promote fundraising and knowledge of global health in our own community, FIMRC will be holding an art auction in conjunction with Ross Galleries. A partial list of the artwork being supplied by Ross Galleries includes works by: Wooster Scott, Max, Orlando, Ebgi, Lena Liu, Shaviko, Rockwell, Chagall, Moses, Delacroix, Wyeth, Behrens and many others. Many bids are guaranteed to be between $50-$300 and investment works will be available for the serious collector as well as sports memorabilia and sculpture.

Admission to this exciting event is $20 for an individual or $35 for a couple which includes wine, refreshments, and door prizes. For advance tickets please call Hannah Arem at 267-515-4703 or email hannah.arem@fimrc.org. For advertising/ sponsoring opportunities please call Israel Green-Hopkins at 508-878-2831 or email Israel at israel.green@fimrc.org

FIMRC is a non-profit organization established to approach the health challenges of children worldwide by providing medical support and health education. Founded in 2002, FIMRC has established pediatric health clinics and partnerships in Uganda, El Salvador, Costa Rica, India and Haiti. FIMRC develops and maintains these health clinics with the support of individual and corporate donations as well as grants and local fundraisers. With over 2,500 volunteers internationally FIMRC has had great success in improving pediatric health care and raising awareness of international healthcare issues.
